melbourne | toronto

actor | multidisciplinary artist | theatre maker

about me

I (he/him) am a multidisciplinary artist, specialising in performance. I come from settler-colonial heritage, an uninvited guest on the lands of the Wurundjeri people. My practice is collaborative at its core, and a recurring area for inspiration is artistic form, and the imprecise boundaries between forms. I make work that is visual, physical, poetic, and intimate. I am striving to make work that brings people together and expands assumptions of what is possible (both in art and life). I am believe art-making and imaginative practices are a fundamental tool for the imagining and creation of a more equitable, humanist society.
